“Built to Last”

“Not in My House”
1 Peter 3:1-7

Submission in marriage means.....

---

---

---

In chapter 3 Peter moves on from society, labor to now marriage for his instructions. Read 3:1-7 through twice. What themes stand out for you?

---

---

---

Read vs. 1,2 again. As women, how do you read these verses? As men? What witness do we make in our marriages?

---

---

---

Read Ephesians 5:21. How do Paul’s instructions relate to Peter’s words?

---

---

---

Ephesians 5:25 Paul instructs men to sacrificially love their wives, just like Jesus did for us. Can you give an example? Can your wife?

---

---

---

In verses 3:3-5 and 3:7 Peter indicates that our response to our spouse has a direct impact on our lives in practical ways. How have you seen this at work for you?

---

---

---

How do you see Peter’s words encouraging you, challenging you in your relationships?

---

---

---

In verses 3:5,6 Peter talks about the “holy women of the past.” Which women in the Bible do you typically go to as examples? What does your choice tell you about how you may be leaning in your views towards women?

---

---

---

---

How will you pray and enact change in your relationship to honor God and point people to Him? If you are not married how do these verses inform you regarding the roles of men and women?
