“The Spread of Brokenness”
Genesis 4:1-18

How is your relationship with your siblings? What sort of things did you fight over when you were growing up?

Genesis 3 introduced us to sin and its impact on all of us. Adam and Eve are now on their own, banished from Eden. Genesis 4 picks up their story as they begin life. Read through Genesis 4 and write down highlights that catch your attention

Genesis 4 begins with work and worship. Something we all do. Read vs 4,5. How do Cain and Abel’s offerings reflect the kind of offerings I bring to God?

Read Hebrews 11:4. What is my heart like when I bring an offering to God?

Sin starts with an unresolved attitude of _____. (Genesis 37:4).

With which attitude of heart do I struggle with the most in my pathway to sin?

Read Genesis 6:8. Unresolved hearts lead to _____.

“Temptation is the intentional enticement of a person, by some bait, always self-gratifying- to disobey God” Do you agree with this? Why or why not?

What is your “tap tap” of temptation?

Read James 4:7. What will I intentionally do to avoid temptation?

Temptation _____ leads to sin. (Genesis 4:8).

How do I try to hide my sin?

Cain’s question to God, “Am I my brother’s keeper?” has made it into our cultural vocabulary. In what was am I unwilling to be the protector, preserver of other life around me?

Sin has _____ (Genesis 4:11)

What is the results of Cain’s sin and how is it similar to Adam’s?

How do I see the consequences of my sin passed along to other’s around me?

Read 4:18,19. God provides grace in the face of my sin. Can you name how God has shown grace to you? Will you take time to thank him for that grace today?
