Sermon Series for February 2022:
"Living Beyond Rebellion"

"Am I a Rebel?"
Numbers 14:1-10

Would you consider yourself a rebel? Why or Why not?

The Book of Numbers charts Israel's failed attempt to get to the land God promised. Not because God failed, but they did. Read Numbers 13:17. List all the things Moses commanded them to do.

Read Numbers 13:1,2. What promise does God make to His people?

Rebellion Starts When We _____ God's Promises. What promise has God made to you that you easily forget?

Read Numbers 13:23. How does God affirm his promise?

See also Lamentations 2:17.

Read Numbers 13:28,29. How do the 10 spies interpret what they see? How does Joshua and Caleb's differ from the 10?

Rebellion is _____.

Read Number 14:1-4. How does the report of the 10 spies influence the rest of the people? Can you think of a time when your misrepresentation of God's promises has influenced others?

In Numbers 14:8-9, Joshua and Caleb stand by God's promises. How are they received by the crowd?

Rebellion is _____.

Read Numbers 14:11,12. By not believing, not trusting God's promises an entire generation is denied entrance into God's best for them. Their denial also sentenced their children to a lifetime of wandering. Is there a promise of God that you are rebelling against right now? How is it affecting your life? The lives of others around you?

What promise of God do you need to reclaim for yourself today? Who can you ask to pray for you as you do?

Paul says, "all the promises of God find their "Yes" in Christ. Take time to thank God that He fulfills all that He promises to us.
