

“Is Now My Time”
1 Samuel 1:1-18

Has anyone ever been in the right place at the right time for you? How did that change the moment you were in?

The Book of Judges describes the endless cycle away from God that they were on. 1 Samuel describes God’s intervention when needed, in the way that was needed. A time for renewal. Read vs.1-11. Describe the condition of Hannah’s household. Describe Hannah’s condition.

A time for renewal starts “with an honest _____ to God.

Read 1 Samuel 1:9-11. Can you feel the distress of Hannah? When was the last time you were this honest before God? What distresses you this deeply before God?

Renewal begins when we are broken before God, desperate before God, destitute before God and know we have nowhere else to go.

Time for renewal requires a _____ commitment before God.

Read 1 Samuel 1:10,11.

What am I willing to sacrifice to see God’s plan move forward?

Ruth’s pledge was, “Where you go I will go. Where you stay, I will stay.” What pledge could I make today?

What holds me back from making any pledge to God?

Renewal acknowledges God’s _____

Read 1 Samuel 2:1-2. This is Hannah’s song of praise after God acts. How often do I celebrate God’s interventions?

Read Exodus 15:20-21. If you were to write a song of praise to God right now, what would it sound like?

God wants to bring renewal to his people. He wants to use us to bring renewal to others. What prayer could you offer to God right now in light for the renewal He wants to provide?
