

“We’re Going to Need a Bigger Boat”
Luke 5:1-11

“What is the biggest boat you have ever been on? How safe did you feel?”

---

---

Luke has begun to take us on a journey to follow Jesus in the early days of his ministry. He starts off in his hometown, where he does not receive a warm welcome. Jesus then leaves to go to Capernaum where he is met by thongs of people willing to listen.

Read Luke 5:1-11 through in one sitting. What words stand out for you in this section?

Answer the following questions;

- ✓ Where did Jesus go? _____
- ✓ What did Jesus do? _____
- ✓ How did people respond? _____
- ✓ How should I respond? _____

These basic questions can be used with the gospels to help anyone better understand Jesus, and how I should respond to the life of Jesus. They make a great Bible discussion time for those who do not yet know about Jesus.

A few more in-depth points about faith from Luke 5

Faith requires _____ by me.

Read Luke 5:4.

What was Jesus’ call to faith to Peter?

---

What call is Jesus making to my faith?

---

Jesus’ call to faith is personal to me.

I am called to _____ my faith

Read Luke 5:7,8.

What confession of faith does Peter make? How is Peter’s response to Jesus different than in verse 5?

---

---

What confession of faith can I make about Jesus?

---

Jesus calls me to _____ in faith.

Read Luke 5:10,11.

What does Peter’s following in faith cost him?

---

What has my following in faith cost me? _____

Read John 10:27. How can this verse give me confidence to follow Jesus in faith wherever it may take me?

---

This week:

- Am I amazed enough about Jesus to take a step of faith?
- In whose life may Jesus be asking me to step into today by faith?
- What is my “wow” Jesus moment this week?