

Sunday – May 28, 2023 – Memorial Day

Memorial Day causes us to pause and remember those who have sacrificed for us. For whom are you grateful today?

Hebrews 11 has been a bread and butter passage for Jesus followers for generations. It has been called the, “Role Call of Faith,” “Memorial Wall of Faith,” “Role of Faith Heroes,” to name a few. It has stood the test of time as a place of encouragement to those who struggle with faith to keep pressing onward and upward to live as disciples.

Skim Hebrews 11. Quickly jot down those words, phrases that stand out for you.

The author is continuing in the argument he has been making. Jesus is superior to everything they have known.

Read Hebrews 10:24,25. How does this verse set the stage for what is in Hebrews 11? _____

Read Hebrews 11:1. Rewrite this verse in your own words.

What is your greatest struggle with faith? _____

How can this verse help? _____

Read Hebrews 11:3 and Psalms 33:6-9. How does faith change your understanding of creation? Why can that give you confidence in your faith?

Faith changes my _____ Hebrews 11:4.

Faith changes my _____ with God. Hebrews 11:6,16.

How would you classify your relationship with God today? How can faith change your relationship?

Faith changes my _____ factor. Hebrews 12:1,2.

What kind of risks can I take, would I take with my faith if I knew I was secure with God?

What’s holding me back from being a “risky” faith person?

Who can I enlist to join me as I live out my faith?

This week

- How might God be calling me to live as a “risky” person of faith?
- What is God’s call on my life?

Next Week: “TBA”
