"My Freedom, My Future"
Romans 8:12-17

"Do more in 24" "Be better this year" "New Year, New You" we hear many slogans meant to inspire us as we come into a new year. Slogans can only go so far. If I only focus on the end result, I can miss what God has already done in me and with me.

KEY VERSE:

"The Spirit you received does not make you slaves, so that you live in fear again;" Romans 8:15

What can I stand firm on today with what God has already done in me?

Today in Jesus I am _____.

Read Romans 8:12-13.

What things in my life still hold me down or back? What keeps me in bondage?

Read John 8:31-36.

What has Jesus already done for me?

Today in Jesus I am a _____ of God

Read Romans 8:15-16.

How would someone know I am a member of God's family by watching me?

Do I live as if I am a permanent member of God's family? How can that truth give me hope?

Today in Jesus I am an _____.

Read Romans 8:17

What is my inheritance from God?

Today in Jesus I am a _____ creation

Read Romans 8:18.

How do I see God's glory at work in my life?

Do I look for God's glory in someone else, or do I only see their imperfections?

Today I am an _____

Read Romans 8:37-39.

Do I live more like a conqueror, or someone conquered?

Paul was convinced that Jesus conquered death, demons, powers, the future and everything he could imagine. Will I pray that God convince me of the same? How will my life change when he does?

This week

How will I live as a freed person today, and how will that change how I live tomorrow?

Next Week: "No One Left Behind"
