How Precious are your thoughts about me, O God. They cannot be numbered.

Psalm 139:17,18

It's hard to believe how quickly two months have flown by, and just like that, we're back in South Africa! Our timing couldn't have been better—while things are cooling down back home, we're stepping into summer here!

During our travels, I had the privilege of preaching from Psalm 139. If you weren't able to attend one of those services, I'd love to share a phrase I emphasized: "Did you know that God has thought about you more today than you have thought about yourself?" What an incredible reminder of His deep love for us—that the Creator of the universe is continually mindful of us. Truly, such a thought brings great encouragement!

One of the highlights of our trip was having Bethany and her husband, Ashley, (pictured on the far right), with us for two weeks. We loved showing Ash around and introducing him to some of our favorite places—Boston and North Conway quickly became favorites of his as well.

Throughout the summer we had the joy of meeting many new friends through concerts and church visits, while also reconnecting with familiar faces. Thank you to everyone who took time to meet with us—it truly meant so much. It was a summer full of meaningful conversations, encouragement, and new connections that we look forward to continuing.

As always, we remain deeply grateful for your faithful support. We could not do this without you, and we thank God for each of you who partner with us in advancing the Gospel here in South Africa through caring for orphaned and vulnerable children.

Dan and Amy

James 1:27

ABOVE: We had a wonderful time at Hillfest reconnecting with old friends and sharing in fellowship. It was also a privilege to speak in a few new churches and share how God is moving in South Africa. A special highlight was seeing two young girls show up to church proudly wearing the T-shirts from last year—what a joy to witness their excitement and support!

Above: We also had the joy of meeting so many new people at Soulfeet—both familiar faces and brand-new ones! One especially touching moment was watching a beautiful family lead their children in prayer for orphans in South Africa before taking a piece of chocolate from our booth. It was such a powerful picture of the universal church at work and the incredible impact of prayer.
