GROWING FUTURES

ANNUAL REPORT / 2025

CULTIVATING RESILIENCE
AMID CRISIS

This year marks ChildVoice's 20 years of restoring the voices of children silenced by war. For two decades, we—together with partners like you—have walked with young people on their journeys of healing, hope, and new beginnings. As we celebrate this milestone, I'm humbled by all that has been accomplished and deeply aware of how much work still lies ahead. I'm excited to share our brand-new 2025 Annual Report, which highlights stories of resilience, impact, and transformation from the past year. As you read, I hope you'll see not just numbers and programs, but the faces and futures that have been changed because you choose to care. Even in a world that feels increasingly unstable, we remain hopeful and determined. The challenges facing war-affected children are real, but so is our commitment to meet them with courage, creativity, and faith as we step into our next 20 years.

Thank you for standing with us in this work. Your partnership is a vital part of ChildVoice's story, and I'm grateful to be on this journey with you.
With gratitude,

Nathan Mandsager
Chief Executive Officer

ChildVoice

restoring the voices of children silenced by war

Founded in 2006, ChildVoice acts on the conviction that children broken by war can be restored in safe, therapeutic settings with loving care, spiritual and emotional counseling, and effective education and vocational training. This is accomplished through both community-based and center-based programs. Our ultimate goal is that every child will be equipped to reintegrate back into their community, being self-sufficient as they pursue their future goals in life.
